

NATALYA BOBENKO

Natalya has now been teaching for over twenty years, participating in all Summer Schools, Winter programmes and guest teaching at the Australian Ballet School since 2000.

Studying in many styles of dance, Natalya had an extensive performing career, from television, film, and Musical Theatre. Nata Maria in Saturday Night Fever that toured Australia, Asia and New Zealand, where she received a GreenRoom Nomination. 'Dream Ballet Laurey ' in Oklahoma , Sweet Charity and Follies (Production Company) and dancing in front of the Queen of England at the Manchester Commonwealth games were definitely career highlights. Natalya began her career in television with over ten years experience, also featuring in many of Australian's leading music artists film clips.

Natalya, also has extensive choreographic experience from Television commercials, ad campaigns, television shows and corporate theatre. Most recently was assistant director, to Martin Croft on the Geelong production of Les Miserables, Natalya has taught in many prestigious schools around the country in the last twenty years, however played a major role in establishing the dance programme at the Victorian College of the Arts Musical Theatre Bachelor.

Natalya is a passionate teacher that thrives on getting the very best possible results for her students, as many of them are currently employed in major musicals around the country.