

Miranda Zeller Bio

Miranda began her dance training with Julieann Nugent, Jomel Purtill, Barbara Eversen and the Queensland Dance School of Excellence Faculty before graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts (Dance) from the Queensland University of Technology.

As an independent contemporary dancer Miranda has toured with contemporary dance shows Flaunt, Slowdive, Hey Scenester, Cavill Avenue and Sweat Shop and has appeared in the Australian Dance Award Finalist film Pulse.

As a commercial dancer Miranda has worked with Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines, Paulini and Myer Campaigns as well as appearing in music videos for Australian music artists Powderfinger, The Sleepy Jackson, Little Birdy and Elizabeth Rose.

Miranda has choreographed and taught for Expressions Dance Company (now Australasian Dance Collective), Queensland University of Technology and Queensland Dance School of Excellence in addition to delivering workshops for the Royal Academy of Dance.

Miranda is also a qualified physiotherapist graduating with honours from the University of Queensland in 2016. She currently works as a choreographer, contemporary dance teacher and anatomy and mechanics teacher across Queensland in dance studio, high school and community settings. She is passionate about sharing the joy of movement with students of all ages and abilities.
